St. Patrick of the Island aspires to be a Christian community by living the Word of God and the sacraments, devoted to the missionary ideals

Here to serve

Who Are We?

St. Patrick of the Island is a Catholic church located in Pincourt, Quebec.

What Do We Do?

We aspire to be a Christian community by living the Word of God and the sacraments, devoted to the missionary ideals and witnessing to the love of Christ through compassion for all.

How Do We Serve?

St. Pat's is home to numerous groups and services meant to nurture one's relationship with God and help one grow in the love of Christ in community.

Some examples include:

Faith First

This is a shared faith formation and development for children. Volunteer catechists prepare children for the sacraments, including Reconciliation, First Communion and Confirmation. Do you want your child to learn about God? Contact us!

Chapel of Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration

St. Pat's is home to a chapel that is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week, which is dedicated to spending time with God, worshiping in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Need a quiet place to spend time with the Lord? This is it! Visit our website: www.stpati.org/chapel.htm

Ministry to the Sick and Elderly

Volunteers from our parish visit the elderly, shut-ins and those recovering in the hospital every Thursday and Friday. We extend our friendship and share the Word of God and the Eucharist. Do you know of someone in need? Let us know!

Sister Parish

St. Pat's is proud to work with St. Joseph the Worker Parish in the Philippines. Two parishes from across the globe reach out to each other to share cultural differences, traditions and customs. Visit our website: <http://stpatrickssisterparish.yuku.com/>

History

The parish was founded as a mission in 1960; worship first took place in the basement of Notre Dame de Lorette and then, in 1962, at the newly constructed St. Patrick elementary school.

By 1965 there were 400 families and the church was built.

In the early 1970s, faced with rising heating costs and a $400,000 mortgage, the parish was in crisis. A drastic decision was made to relocate religious services to the parish hall and to convert the church to a revenue property.

From 1973 until 1989, the original church was used as a hall for bingo, dances and selected social activities until the parish was clear of debt. The church was consecrated by Bishop Robert Lebel in May, 1990.

The church itself holds 400 people and is covered with a shingled mansard roof that almost hugs the ground. The rectory is large and contains suites for several priests.

The interior of the church is open and warm with the pews set at an angle towards the sanctuary.

A striking feature is the Stations of the Cross, which are large framed oil paintings donated by the late Frank Morahan.

St. Pat's Chapel of Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration

“This service that you perform is not only supplying the needs of God's people but is also overflowing in many expressions of thanks to God.”

2 Corinthians 9:12
